Tax Implications

State	Implications
TN	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The filing deadline for Business Tax returns originally due April 15, 2020, has been extended to June 15, 2020.• The state of Tennessee is allowing penalty waivers for taxpayers.• Taxpayers may log into their Tennessee Taxpayer Access Point (TNAP) account and request an installment payment plan. TNTAP will immediately indicate to the taxpayer if they qualify for an online payment plan.
MS	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Filing deadline moved to May 15, 2020.• Penalty and interest accrual has been suspended effective March 15, 2020 and will continue until the end of the national emergency.
AL	Effective immediately, for small businesses whose monthly retail sales during the previous calendar year averaged $62,500 or less, late payment penalties will be waived through June 1, 2020. After the expiration of this temporary waiver, the Department will work with taxpayers to develop workable payment plans that will allow taxpayers to pay outstanding liabilities.
KY	Kentucky income tax returns and filings are now due on July 15, 2020. The calculation and application of penalties, fees and interest corresponding to Kentucky income tax filings and payments now due on July 15, 2020 will begin on July 16, 2020. For filers who submit an automatic return filing extension, the due date for returns previously due April 15, 2020, but now due July 15, 2020, will be October 15, 2020.
VA	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Businesses impacted by COVID-19 can request to defer the payment of state sales tax for 30 days after the original due date, March 20, 2020. When granted, businesses will be able to file no later than April 20, 2020 with a waiver of any penalties.• The Virginia Department of Taxation is extending the due date of payment of Virginia individuals and corporate income taxes. While filing deadlines remain the same, the due date for individual and corporate income tax will now be June 1, 2020.• Please note that interest will still accrue; taxpayers who are able to pay by the original deadlines should do so.
NC	State income tax filing due date has also been automatically extended from April 15, 2020, to July 15, 2020, mirroring the federal change. There are no penalties for late filing or payments of many tax types, including sales and use and withholding taxes, through July 15.
GA	Filing deadline has been extended to July 15, 2020.
